Newsletter Editor Needed

Over The Water needs a new editor – could it be you?

It's been fun for 3 years, filling you all in on what's happening, but it's time for a fresh new point of view. The job description is pretty open to personal interpretation – we have had 4 issues a year, but the frequency is up to the editor and the branches. We've been using a format that evolved over a couple of years, and it's subject to change. My approach has been to gather input from various groups and from time to time ask someone to write on a particular topic; your approach may differ. Jay Andrews has been taking on the effort of compiling the calendar, so the editor's job is just the stories and news bits. Long story short, the job will be what YOU make it. Contact Jenn Stoddard or Jay Andrews if you are interested.

Flowers of the Forest: Joy MacDonald

Long time Washington area dancer, Joy MacDonald, passed away on October 14, 2003, from complications of heart disease. She went peacefully in the company of her family. Joy embodied her name. She was happy to be dancing, glad to see you. She was warm and welcoming, always kind but never meek.

Donations may be made in Joy's memory to a local Audubon Society.

New Contact Info

Stella Fogg's email has been changed to stellafogg@comcast.net. Please make a note of it in your Little Yellow Book.

Speaking of the Little Yellow Book...

Congratulations to Jennifer Mayrovitz, who has generously taken over editorship of the Scottish Country Dance Directory for Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia. Update letters for your 2004 data have already been sent out in January. Ellie Briscoe doesn't remember how long she's been the LYB editor, but the oldest one in her file cabinet is from 1997.

New Location for the RSCDS of Washington Monday Night Group

SCDSW is up and running at St Alban's Church, 3001 Wisconsin Ave. This is the Episcopal parish church on the grounds of the National Cathedral. We meet in Satterlee Hall, right next to the church. From Wisconsin Ave, drive through an arch connecting the church itself to the parish hall beside it. The door to Satterlee Hall is immediately to your right as you drive through the arch. Parking is a little further along the road, near St Alban's School.

It has a nice old wooden floor, easy to get to by public transportation, convenient parking, and none of the security hassles of NIH. Come on over and check it out next Monday and every Monday at 8:00.

For directions, see <http://www.st-albans-parish.org/contactus/directions.html>

It is with a heavy heart that we will see our dear friend Carla Wiedemann leave our Community at the end of April. While we wish her well on her new adventure, it is our most sincere wish that Carla will be able to rejoin us again in the not too distant future. Carla has been an extremely active member of the dancing community since she arrived in the Washington area, often traveling to dances up and down the east coast to satisfy her Scottish habit. Carla has served as music coordinator for St. Columba's for the past 2 years and is currently serving as SCDS of Washington's VP. Carla we will without a doubt miss your smiling face and dancing feet, come back to us soon!

Teachers' Corner

A spot for announcements to area teachers as well as teaching-related information for all.

Bio Snapshot: Stella Fogg. Born in Gourock, Scotland, Stella learned ceilidh dancing and Scottish Country Dancing as a youth, and her Girl Guide demonstration team competed with other Girl Guide groups at the yearly festival. She trained as a nurse at Stobhill School of Nursing in Glasgow, dancing with the local Highlander's Society, and where the dancing was a combination of Scottish Country and ceilidh. She came to the US in 1963 and after moving to Hawaii in the early 70s joined the RSCDS Hawaii Branch class. Since then she hasn't stopped dancing and learning. Stella received her Preliminary Certificate from Miss Milligan in Hawaii and her Full Certificate at TAC. She teaches class twice weekly in Richmond, Virginia, and teaches workshops locally and statewide. She also likes to be a workshop participant learning something from every teacher and dancer.

Teachers, teachers everywhere... Richmond is the "happening place" for Scottish country dancing teachers these days. Welcome and welcome back to Jeff and Patsy Corrigan and to Moira Turner.
